

Airam Díaz Pastor is President of MedCruise, the Association of Mediterranean Cruise Ports, since October 2017 and Commercial Director of the Port Authority of Santa Cruz de Tenerife since 2011.

He has been Key Account Manager for Shipping Company, International Transport & Logistics of Grimaldi Group in Naples in Italy, as well as for I.C.P.L Srl - Rome Interport Logistic Platform Civitavecchia in Rome where he managed for instance, Royal Caribbean and Princess Cruises warehouses. In Dakar in Senegal, he was Commercial Director of the international sales, distribution and logistics tire company Firestone-Toppneus and Market Analyst at the Commercial Department and Economic Development of the Spanish Embassy. He has a Master Degree in Law, Maritime

Business and Port Management, Diploma in International Business and Marketing and Bachelor Degree in International Business Management and Marketing by the University of Wales.

As former MedCruise Board of Directors member, he was Responsible of the Association Projects & Studies, developing with PIANC “Guidelines for building cruise terminals” and coordinating MedCruise working groups related to the impact of cruise activities and the provision of LNG in the MedCruise ports.