

Andelko Petrinić was born in Orlec, Cres in 1970.

In 2017 he was appointed as Assistant Minister in the Ministry of the Sea, Transport and Infrastructure. He graduated at the Faculty of Maritime Studies, University of Rijeka in 1995, BSc in maritime transport.

From 1998 to 1999 he was employed as a professor of nautical groups at the high school "Ambroz Haračić" in Mali Lošinj. From 2000 until 2013 worked as the general manager of the County Port Authority of Cres. From 2013 to 2017 is on the head of the County Port Authority of Krk.

He participated in the realization number of projects related to the development of port infrastructure.